AAA ASSESSMENT NO.: 99-20-1155-7482 INSURER'S FILE NUMBER: 1033550-02

AAA CASE NUMBER:

MASTER ARBITRATION AWARD

I, _____, the undersigned MASTER ARBITRATOR, appointed by the Superintendent of Insurance and designated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Superintendent of Insurance at 11 NYCRR 65-4.10, having been duly sworn, and having heard the proofs and allegations of the parties on _____, make the following AWARD.

Part I. Summary of Issues in Dispute

The issue before the lower arbitrator was whether Respondent properly denied the claim for acupuncture services and shoulder surgery based upon the lack of medical necessity and/or causation. The lower arbitrator allowed the claim for the shoulder surgery. Respondent seeks to overturn the award of the lower arbitrator.

The issue before me is whether Arbitrator Sweeney's decision to allow the claim for the shoulder surgery was arbitrary, capricious or incorrect as a matter of law.

Part II. Findings, Conclusions, and Basis Therefor

As required by 11 NYCRR Section 65-4.10(c)(3), I determine that the facts alleged in the submitted documents set forth a proper ground for review pursuant to Subdivision (a) of Section 65-4.10 and that the request for master arbitration was properly made in accordance with Subdivision (d)(1) and (2) of that Section.

The review of this award is limited to the standards set forth in CPLR Article 75 and which was defined by the Court of Appeals in Matter of Petrofsky v. Allstate Insurance Company, 54 N.Y. 2d 207 as follows:

"In cases of compulsory arbitration, this Court has held that Article 75 of the CPLR 'includes review... of whether the award is supported by evidence or other basis in reason.' (Mount St. Mary's v. Catherwood, 26 N.Y. 2d 493). This standard has been interpreted to import into Article 75 review of compulsory arbitrations the arbitrary and capricious standard of Article 78 review. (Caso v. Coffey, 41 N.Y.2d 153, 158, Siegel, New York Practice, Section 603, pp. 865-866). In addition, Article 75 review questions whether the decision was rational or had plausible basis. (Caso v. Coffey, 41 N.Y.2d 153, supra)."

The grounds for review also include that the decision was incorrect as a matter of law (11 NYCRR 65-4.10(a)(4). However, "(The) master arbitrator 'exceeds his statutory power by making his own factual determination, by reviewing factual and procedural errors committed during the course of the arbitration, by weighing the evidence, or by resolving the issues such as the credibility of the witnesses.'" Matter of Richardson v. Prudential Property & Casualty Co., 230 A.D. 2d 861; Mott v. State Farm Insurance Company, 55 N.Y. 2d 224.

The lower arbitrator conducted a hearing and did an extensive review of all of the evidence including the medical documentation. Arbitrator Sweeney considered the lack of medical necessity and/or causation defense regarding acupuncture services and shoulder surgery. With regard to the acupuncture services Arbitrator Sweeney considered the report of Dr. Russ and her prior decision in AAA # 99-19-1142-0923. Arbitrator Sweeney determined that the acupuncture services were not medically necessary and causally related to the accident. And as such denied that portion of the claim

Arbitrator Sweeney next considered the shoulder surgery. Arbitrator Sweeney considered the peer review of Dr. Skolnick, the radiological review of Dr Fitzpatrick, the intra-operative photo review of Dr Levin, and the rebuttal of Dr. Kleinman. Arbitrator Sweeney determined after considering all of the medical evidence that the shoulder surgery was medically necessary and causally related to the accident. And as such allowed that portion of the claim.

Arbitrator Sweeney's conclusions and findings regarding medical necessity and causal relationship were in her discretion and interpretation of the evidence. It cannot be regarded as reversible error within this Master Arbitrator's purview. This Master Arbitrator cannot conduct a de novo review and substitute my interpretation and view of the evidence for that of the lower arbitrator. In particular, as here, Arbitrator Sweeney's determination is rational and supported by the record.

I find that the arbitrator's award should not be disturbed in accordance with the standards set forth above.

I cannot conclude on the basis of the record before me that Arbitrator Sweeney's was incorrect as a matter of law or arbitrary and capricious. Therefore, I must affirm the award.
