In the Matter of the Arbitration between:

Metropolitan Medical & Rehabilitation, PC (Applicant)	AAA Case No.	17-23-1304-5722
- and -	Applicant's File No.	168399
	Insurer's Claim File No.	0652457052 2SG
Allstate Insurance Company (Respondent)	NAIC No.	29688

ARBITRATION AWARD

I, Eileen Hennessy, the undersigned arbitrator, designated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to the Rules for New York State No-Fault Arbitration, adopted pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Superintendent of Insurance, having been duly sworn, and having heard the proofs and allegations of the parties make the following AWARD:

Injured Person(s) hereinafter referred to as: Assignor-T.G.

1. Hearing(s) held on 11/17/2023
Declared closed by the arbitrator on 11/17/2023

Michael Spector from The Odierno Law Firm P.C. participated virtually for the Applicant

Rosemary Krupp from Law Office Of Lawrence & Lawrence participated virtually for the Respondent

2. The amount claimed in the Arbitration Request, $1,209.14, was AMENDED and permitted by the arbitrator at the oral hearing.

Applicant amended the amount in dispute from the original amount of $1,209.14 to $1,164.03 in accordance with the applicable fee schedule.

Stipulations WERE made by the parties regarding the issues to be determined.

The parties stipulated and agreed that (i) Applicant has met its prima facie burden by submitting evidence that payment of no-fault benefits is overdue, and proof of its claim was mailed to and received by Respondent and (ii) Respondent's denial of the subject claim was timely issued.

3. Summary of Issues in Dispute

The record reveals that the Assignor-T.G., a 65-year-old male, claimed injuries as a driver of a motor vehicle involved in an accident that occurred on 12/9/2021. Applicant seeks reimbursement for a lumbar epidural steroid injection ("LESI"), trigger point injections ("TPIs") under fluoroscopic guidance, and injectable medication conducted on 3/3/2023. Respondent denied the claim based on lack of medical necessity as determined by the Independent Medical Examination (IME) report of Pierce J. Ferriter, M.D., effective 10/27/2022. The issue for determination is whether the services were medically necessary?

4. Findings, Conclusions, and Basis Therefor

Applicant seeks reimbursement for a LESI, TPIs under fluoroscopic guidance, and injectable medication. This hearing was conducted using the documents contained in the Electronic Case Folder (ECF) maintained by the American Arbitration Association. All documents contained in the ECF are made part of the record of this hearing and my decision was made after a review of all relevant documents found in the ECF as well as the arguments presented by the parties during the hearing held via Zoom.

In accordance with 11 NYCRR 65-4.5(o) (1), an arbitrator shall be the judge of the relevance and materiality of the evidence and strict conformity of the legal rules of evidence shall not be necessary. Further, the arbitrator may question or examine any witnesses and independently raise any issue that Arbitrator deems relevant to making an award that is consistent with the Insurance Law and the Department Regulations.

Legal Standards for Determining Medical Necessity

Once applicant has established a prima facie case, the burden then shifts to respondent to establish a lack of medical necessity with respect to the benefits sought. See, Citywide Social Work & Psychological Services, PLLC v. Allstate Ins. Co., 8 Misc3d 1025A (2005). A denial premised on lack of medical necessity must be supported by competent evidence such as an IME, peer review or other proof which sets forth a factual basis and medical rationale for denying the claim. See, Healing Hands Chiropractic, P.C. v. Nationwide Assur. Co., 5 Misc3d 975 (2004).

In evaluating the medical necessity of services with proof of each party, particularly where the conclusion is contradictory; consideration must be given to the evidentiary burdens. Respondent must prove first that the services were not medically necessary. The issue of whether treatment is medically unnecessary cannot be resolved without resort to meaningful medical assessment. Kingsborough Jewish Med. Ctr. v. All State Ins. Co., 61 A.D. 3d. 13 (2d. Dep't, 2009), See also Channel Chiropractic PC v. Country Wide Ins. Co., 38 AD 3d. 294 (1st Dep't, 2007). An IME doctor must establish a factual basis and medical rationale for his asserted lack of medical necessity for future health care services. E.g., Ying Eastern Acupuncture, P.C. v. Global Liberty Insurance, 20 Misc.3d 144(A), (App. Term 2d & 11th Dists. Sept. 3, 2008). Where the defendant insurer presents sufficient evidence to establish a defense based on the lack of medical necessity, the burden shifts to the plaintiff which must then present its own evidence of medical necessity. West Tremont Medical Diagnostic, P.C. v. Geico Ins. Co., 13 Misc.3d 4(App. Term 2d & 11th Dists. Sept. 29, 2006). For an applicant to prove that the disputed expense was medically necessary, it must meaningfully refer to, or rebut, respondent's evidence. See, Yklik, Inc. v. Geico Ins. Co., 28 Misc3d 133A (2010). The case law is clear that a provider must rebut the conclusions and determinations of the IME doctor with his own facts. Moreover, the Appellate Term, 2d, 11th & 13th Dists., stated: "Assuming the insurer is successful in satisfying its burden, it is ultimately plaintiff who must prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the services or supplies were medically necessary." Park Slope Medical and Surgical Supply, Inc. v. Travelers Ins. Co., 37 Misc.3d 19, 22 (App. Term 2d, 11th & 13th Dists. 2012). Where an IME report provides a factual basis and medical rationale for an opinion that services were not medically necessary, and the claimant fails to present any evidence to refute that showing, the claim should be denied, as the ultimate burden of proof on the issue of medical necessity lies with the claimant. See Insurance Law § 5102; AJS Chiropractic, P.C. v. Mercury Ins. Co., 22 Misc.3d 133(A), (App. Term 2d & 11th Dist. Feb. 9, 2002); Wagner v. Baird, 208 A.D.2d 1087 (3d Dept. 1994).

Application of Legal Standards

I note the validity of denials based upon negative IME findings have been recognized by several Courts. See e.g. Innovative Chiropractics P.C. v. Mercury Ins. Co., 25 Misc3d 137 (App. Term 2d & 11th Dists. 2009); B.Y. M.D., P.C. v. Progressive Casualty Ins. Co., 26 Misc3d 125 (App. Term 9th & 10th Dists. 2010). An IME report can be the basis of a termination of benefits if ultimately found to be persuasive. Whether an IME report is persuasive, and meets the carrier's burden is a factual decision, which must be rendered on a case by case basis. Therefore, when, as here, an insurer interposes a timely denial of claim that sets forth a sufficiently detailed factual basis and adequate medical rationale for the claim's rejection, the presumption of medical necessity and causality attached to the applicant's properly completed claim is rebutted and the burden shifts back to the claimant to refute the IME findings and prove the necessity of the disputed services and the causal relationship between the injuries and the accident. See, CPT Med. Servs., P.C. v. New York Cent. Mut. Fire Ins. Co., 18 Misc.3d 87 (App. Term 1st Dept.); A.Khodadadi Radiology, P.C. v. NY Cent. Mut. Fire Ins. Co., 16 Misc. 3d. 131 (A) (App Term 2d Dept.).

In support of its contention that further treatment was not medically necessary, Respondent relies upon the orthopedic report of Pierce Ferriter, M.D.conducted on 10/6/2022. All tests were objectively negative and unremarkable with no swelling, tenderness or muscle spasm noted. Orthopedic testing was normal. On neurological examination, there were no motor or sensory deficits in the upper or lower extremities. Deep tendon reflexes were 2+ bilaterally. Muscle strength of the upper and lower extremities is graded at 5/5 bilaterally. Range of motion was full. Dr. Ferriter diagnosed all injuries as resolved. There is no evidence of an orthopedic disability. Based upon Dr. Ferriter's examination all orthopedic No-fault benefits were denied effective 10/27/2022.

In this matter, I am faced with conflicting opinions concerning the medical necessity for the treatment. There are no legal issues to resolve. This dispute involves solely an issue of fact, that is, whether the services billed were medically necessary. Resolution of that fact is determined by which opinion is accepted by the trier of fact.

I find the report for the IME conducted by Pierce Ferriter, M.D. on 10/6/2022 to be sufficient for the purpose of establishing Respondent's defense. The report adequately sets forth the factual basis and medical rationale to support the conclusion that the Assignor was not in need of any further treatment. That being so, the burden shifts to the Applicant to counter Respondent's showing.

Having carefully reviewed all the evidence I find that Applicant has failed to rebut Dr. Ferriter's assessment and has not succeeded in demonstrating that the claimed services were necessary for the Assignor. Applicant evidence is limited to the LESI procedure report, dated 3/3/2023. Applicant points to an examination, dated 11/14/2022, which was found sufficient to rebut Dr. Ferriter's IME in a linked case as well as EMG/NCV testing reports of the upper and lower extremities, dated 2/7/2022, MRIs of the cervical, thoracic, and lumbar spine, dated 1/18/2022, and MRIs of the left shoulder and chest, dated 2/3/2022. However, the 11/14/2022 examination report was not submitted to the record in the case and cannot therefore serve to rebut the IME. Moreover, the diagnostic tests referred to by Applicant are not contemporaneous to the 10/6/2022 IME. Respondent submits the extensive records reviewed by the IME doctor, including an examination report by Sawey Harhash, M.D., dated 6/22/2022, and examination reports by Frank Segreto, M.D., dated 1/10/2022 through 5/2/2022.

There are no contemporaneous examinations to the IME. Furthermore, there are no medical records in the record between the 6/22/2022 report by Dr. Harhash and the LESI conducted more than eight months later on 3/3/2023. There is no examination report by treating physician, Sawey Harhash, M.D., contemporaneous to the procedure in dispute. Without reports of an examination at or about the time of the IME detailing objective findings of abnormalities requiring further treatment, Applicant failed to rebut the Respondent's IME objective examination. Furthermore, the Applicant failed to explain the more than 8-month gap in treatment in the record. Applicant has failed to establish that the Assignor required continued orthopedic treatment after the effective date of 10/27/2022. Applicant has failed to satisfy its burden. Accordingly, in balancing the two positions, I find that the more credible and persuasive proof on the issue of medical necessity resides with the Respondent. Applicant's claim, denied premised upon the IME report of Dr. Ferriter, is denied.

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, Applicant's claim is denied. This decision is in full disposition of all claims for No-Fault benefits presently before this Arbitrator.

5. Optional imposition of administrative costs on Applicant.
Applicable for arbitration requests filed on and after March 1, 2002.

I do NOT impose the administrative costs of arbitration to the applicant, in the amount established for the current calendar year by the Designated Organization.

6. I find as follows with regard to the policy issues before me:

- ☐ The policy was not in force on the date of the accident
- ☐ The applicant was excluded under policy conditions or exclusions
- ☐ The applicant violated policy conditions, resulting in exclusion from coverage
- ☐ The applicant was not an "eligible injured person"
- ☐ The conditions for MVAIC eligibility were not met
- ☐ The injured person was not a "qualified person" (under the MVAIC)
- ☐ The applicant's injuries didn't arise out of the "use or operation" of a motor vehicle
- ☐ The respondent is not subject to the jurisdiction of the New York No-Fault arbitration forum

Accordingly, the claim is DENIED in its entirety

This award is in full settlement of all no-fault benefit claims submitted to this arbitrator.
