ARBITRATION AWARD

I, Anne Malone, the undersigned arbitrator, designated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to the Rules for New York State No-Fault Arbitration, adopted pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Superintendent of Insurance, having been duly sworn, and having heard the proofs and allegations of the parties make the following AWARD:

Injured Person(s) hereinafter referred to as: EIP

1. Hearing(s) held on 11/18/2024
Declared closed by the arbitrator on 11/18/2024

Philip Kim, Esq. from Horn Wright, LLP participated virtually for the Applicant

Edwin Maldonado, Esq. from Rivkin & Radler LLP participated virtually for the Respondent

2. The amount claimed in the Arbitration Request, $367.30, was NOT AMENDED at the oral hearing.
Stipulations WERE NOT made by the parties regarding the issues to be determined.

3. Summary of Issues in Dispute

The 35 year old EIP reported involvement in a motor vehicle accident on January 11, 2023; claimed related injury and received Lidocaine ointment and Ciprofloxacin and Endocet tablets provided by the applicant on March 6, 2023.

The applicant submitted a claim for this topical and oral prescription medication, payment of which was delayed pending verification requests and then denied after 120 days from the initial date of the request for verification.

The verification requested was for documents and information related to this claim and to the corporate structure and business practices of the applicant.

The applicant contends that the denial is untimely.

The issue to be determined at the hearing is whether the respondent established its 120 day defense.

4. Findings, Conclusions, and Basis Therefor

This hearing was held on Zoom and the decision is based upon the documents reviewed in the Modria File as well as the arguments made by counsel and/or representative at the arbitration hearing. Only the arguments presented at the hearing are preserved in this decision; all other arguments not presented at the hearing are considered waived.

If an insurer requires any additional information to evaluate the proof of claim, such request for verification must be made within 15 business days of the receipt of the bill in order to toll the 30 day period to pay or deny the claim. See 11 NYCRR 65-3.5(b); See also New York Hosp. Med. Ctr. of Queens v. Allstate Ins. Co., 2014 NY Slip Op 00640 (2d Dept. 2014.)

Where there is a timely original request for verification, but no response to the original request for verification is received within 30 days, or the response to the verification request is incomplete, then the insurer, within 10 calendar days after the expiration of that 30 day period, must follow up with a second request for verification. Id.

If there is no response to the second or follow up request for verification, the time in which the insurer must decide whether to pay or deny the claim is indefinitely tolled. Id.

Therefore, when a no-fault medical service provider fails to respond to the requests for verification the claim is premature and should be denied without prejudice.

However, pursuant to 11 NYCRR §65-3.5(o) an insurer may issue a denial if, more than 120 calendar days after the initial request for verification, the applicant has not submitted all such verification under applicant's control or possession or written proof providing reasonable justification for the failure to comply.

11 NYCRR 65-3.5(o) specifically excludes EUOs from its purview. The document requests at issue were in response to the testimony by the witness on behalf of the applicant at the EUO and therefore, fall outside of the 120-day rule.

In any event, the Court in Neptune Med. Care, P.C. v. Ameriprise Auto & Home Ins., 48 Misc. 3d 139A (2015), Appellate Term, 2d Department, found that "even if defendant had tolled the 30-day period within which it was required to pay or deny the bills at issue, by timely requesting verification pursuant to 11 NYCRR 65-3.8(a)...the Regulations do not provide that such a toll grants an insurer additional opportunities to make requests for verification that would otherwise be untimely."

The claim at issue is one of numerous claims involving various EIPs and this applicant based on the same post-EUO requests for documents/information.

In the instant matter, the applicant has provided more than 700 pages of documents related to the same issues.

After a review of the submissions, I find that the applicant provided responses that were "arguably responsive" to the post-EUO requests for documents/information. I find that the applicant has substantially complied with the verification requests; the 120 day denial is improper and the time to pay or deny this bill is not tolled.

Accordingly, applicant is awarded $367.30 in disposition of this claim.

Any further issues submitted in the record are held to be moot and/or waived insofar as they were not raised at the time of this hearing. This decision is in full disposition of all claims for no-fault benefits presently before this Arbitrator.

5. Optional imposition of administrative costs on Applicant.
Applicable for arbitration requests filed on and after March 1, 2002.

I do NOT impose the administrative costs of arbitration to the applicant, in the amount established for the current calendar year by the Designated Organization.

6. I find as follows with regard to the policy issues before me:

- ☐ The policy was not in force on the date of the accident
- ☐ The applicant was excluded under policy conditions or exclusions
- ☐ The applicant violated policy conditions, resulting in exclusion from coverage
- ☐ The applicant was not an "eligible injured person"
- ☐ The conditions for MVAIC eligibility were not met
- ☐ The injured person was not a "qualified person" (under the MVAIC)
- ☐ The applicant's injuries didn't arise out of the "use or operation" of a motor vehicle
- ☐ The respondent is not subject to the jurisdiction of the New York No-Fault arbitration forum

Accordingly, the applicant is AWARDED the following:

A.

Medical		From/To	Claim Amount	Status
	eMed Pharmacy Corp.	03/06/23 - 03/06/23	$367.30	Awarded: $367.30
Total			$367.30	Awarded: $367.30

- B. The insurer shall also compute and pay the applicant interest set forth below. 09/26/2023 is the date that interest shall accrue from. This is a relevant date only to the extent set forth below.

Applicant is awarded interest pursuant to the no-fault regulations. See generally, 11 NYCRR §65-3.9. Interest shall be calculated "at a rate of two percent per month, calculated on a pro rata basis using a 30 day month." See 11 NYCRR §64-3.9(a). A claim becomes overdue when it is not paid within 30 days after a proper demand is made for its payment. However, the regulations toll the accrual of interest when an applicant "does not request arbitration or institute a lawsuit within 30 days after the receipt of a denial of claim form or payment of benefits" calculated pursuant to Insurance Department regulations. Where a claim is untimely denied, or not denied or paid, interest shall accrue as of the 30th day following the date the claim is presented by the claimant to the insurer for payment. Where a claim is timely denied, interest shall accrue as of the date an action is commenced or an arbitration requested, unless an action is commenced or an arbitration requested within 30 days after receipt of the denial, in which event interest shall begin to accrue as of the date the denial is received by the claimant. See, 11 NYCRR §65-3.9(c.) The Superintendent and the New York Court of Appeals has interpreted this provision to apply regardless of whether the particular denial was timely. LMK Psychological Servs. P.C. v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 12 NY3d 217 (2009.)

C. Attorney's Fees

The insurer shall also pay the applicant for attorney's fees as set forth below

Applicant is awarded statutory attorney's fees pursuant to the no fault regulations. For cases filed after February 4, 2015 the attorney's fee shall be calculated as follows: 20% of the amount of first-party benefits awarded, plus interest thereon subject to no minimum fee and a maximum of $1,360.00. See 11 NYCRR §65-4.6(d.)

- D. The respondent shall also pay the applicant forty dollars ($40) to reimburse the applicant for the fee paid to the Designated Organization, unless the fee was previously returned pursuant to an earlier award.

This award is in full settlement of all no-fault benefit claims submitted to this arbitrator.
