ARBITRATION AWARD

I, Anne Malone, the undersigned arbitrator, designated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to the Rules for New York State No-Fault Arbitration, adopted pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Superintendent of Insurance, having been duly sworn, and having heard the proofs and allegations of the parties make the following AWARD:

Injured Person(s) hereinafter referred to as: EIP

1. Hearing(s) held on 08/21/2026
Declared closed by the arbitrator on 08/21/2026

Michael Spector, Esq. from The Odierno Law Firm, P.C. participated virtually for the Applicant

Noel Lastre, Esq. from Law Office of William J. Fitzula participated virtually for the Respondent

2. The amount claimed in the Arbitration Request, $739.48, was NOT AMENDED at the oral hearing.
Stipulations WERE NOT made by the parties regarding the issues to be determined.
3. Summary of Issues in Dispute

The 32 year old EIP reported involvement in a motor vehicle accident on October 19, 2024; claimed related injury and underwent chiropractic treatment and nerve testing provided by the applicant on September 2, 2025.

The applicant submitted a claim for these medical services, payment of which was timely denied by the respondent based on the IME of the EIP by Frank McNally, D.C. which was performed on May 1, 2025. The IME cut-off was effective on May 19, 2025.

The issue to be determined at the hearing is whether the respondent established that the chiropractic services provided by the applicant were not medically necessary.

4. Findings, Conclusions, and Basis Therefor

This hearing was held on Zoom and the decision is based upon the documents reviewed in the Modria File as well as the arguments made by counsel and/or representative at the arbitration hearing. Only the arguments presented at the hearing are preserved in this decision; all other arguments not presented at the hearing are considered waived.

To support a lack of medical necessity respondent must "set forth a factual basis and medical rationale for the IME doctor's determination that there was a lack of medical necessity for the services rendered." Provvedere, Inc. v. Republic Western Ins. Co., 2014 NY Slip Op 50219(U) (App. Term2d, 11th and 13th Jud. Dists. 2014.) Respondent bears the burden of production in support of its lack of medical necessity defense, which if established shifts the burden of persuasion to applicant. See Bronx Expert Radiology, P.C. v. Travelers Ins. Co., 2006 NY Slip Op 52116 (App. Term 1st Dept. 2006.)

The Civil Courts have held that a defendant's peer review or medical evidence must set forth more than just a basic recitation of the expert's opinion. The trial courts have held that a peer review report's medical rationale will be insufficient to meet respondent's burden of proof if: 1) the medical rationale of its expert witness is not supported by evidence of a deviation from "generally accepted medical" standards; 2) the expert fails to cite to medical authority, standard, or generally accepted medical practice as a medical rationale for his/her findings; and 3) the peer review report fails to provide specifics as to the claim at issue; is conclusory or vague. See Nir v. Allstate, 7 Misc.3d 544 (N.Y. City Civ. Ct. 2005.)

To support its contention that the chiropractic services provided to the EIP were not medically necessary, the respondent relied upon the report of the independent medical examination of the EIP by Dr. McNally which was objectively negative and unremarkable. Range of motion was determined with the assistance of a goniometer. The report presents a factually sufficient, cogent medical rationale in support of respondent's lack of medical necessity defense. Dr. McNally performed a complete and comprehensive examination of the EIP which did not identify any objective positive findings and determined that his injuries were resolved.

Based upon the physical examination and medical records reviewed, Dr. McNally determined that despite his subjective complaints, the EIP was not disabled and that he could perform his activities of daily living without restrictions. It was Dr. McNally's opinion that there was no medical necessity for further chiropractic treatment, massage therapy, diagnostic testing, durable medical equipment, household help or special transportation.

Respondent has factually demonstrated that the medical services at issue were not medically necessary. Accordingly, the burden now shifts to the applicant, who bears the ultimate burden of persuasion. See Bronx Expert Radiology, P.C. v. Travelers Ins. Co., 2006 NY Slip Op 52116 (App. Term 1 Dept. 2006.)

In response to the report of the physical examination of the EIP by Dr. McNally, the applicant relied upon the submissions, including the May 20, 2025 chiropractic evaluation of the EIP which is the only evaluation submitted related specifically to chiropractic treatment. The submissions include chiropractic progress notes from October 21, 2024 and November 19, 2024 and the progress notes related to this claim from May 20, 2025 to July 16, 2025.

Based on the foregoing, the applicant failed to document sufficient contemporaneous objective findings that would warrant continued chiropractic treatment after the IME cut-off date. The submitted medical records do not sufficiently address the arguments that are raised in the IME and do not establish that the chiropractic treatment at issue was medically necessary.

Accordingly, the claim is dismissed with prejudice.

Any further issues submitted in the record are held to be moot and/or waived insofar as they were not raised at the time of this hearing. This decision is in full disposition of all claims for no-fault benefits presently before this Arbitrator.

5. Optional imposition of administrative costs on Applicant.
Applicable for arbitration requests filed on and after March 1, 2002.

I do NOT impose the administrative costs of arbitration to the applicant, in the amount established for the current calendar year by the Designated Organization.

6. I find as follows with regard to the policy issues before me:

- ☐ The policy was not in force on the date of the accident
- ☐ The applicant was excluded under policy conditions or exclusions
- ☐ The applicant violated policy conditions, resulting in exclusion from coverage
- ☐ The applicant was not an "eligible injured person"
- ☐ The conditions for MVAIC eligibility were not met
- ☐ The injured person was not a "qualified person" (under the MVAIC)
- ☐ The applicant's injuries didn't arise out of the "use or operation" of a motor vehicle

The respondent is not subject to the jurisdiction of the New York No-Fault arbitration forum

Accordingly, the claim is DENIED in its entirety

This award is in full settlement of all no-fault benefit claims submitted to this arbitrator.
