ARBITRATION AWARD

I, Anne Malone, the undersigned arbitrator, designated by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to the Rules for New York State No-Fault Arbitration, adopted pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Superintendent of Insurance, having been duly sworn, and having heard the proofs and allegations of the parties make the following AWARD:

Injured Person(s) hereinafter referred to as: EIP

1. Hearing(s) held on 08/03/2026
Declared closed by the arbitrator on 08/03/2026

Cliff Ryan, Esq. from The Licatesi Law Group, LLP participated virtually for the Applicant

Jennifer Jordan, Esq. from Husch Blackwell LLP participated virtually for the Respondent

2. The amount claimed in the Arbitration Request, $2,470.71, was AMENDED and permitted by the arbitrator at the oral hearing.

The amount claimed was amended by the applicant to $1,732.25 to conform to the appropriate fee schedule. The respondent did not agree to this amended amount.

Stipulations WERE NOT made by the parties regarding the issues to be determined.

3. Summary of Issues in Dispute

The 42 year old EIP reported involvement in a motor vehicle accident on July 7, 2025; claimed related injury and underwent trigger point and nerve or branch injections with guidance and office visits provided by the applicant on July 9, 2025. The services were provided by a NP.

The applicant submitted a claim for these medical services. The respondent made partial payment of $569.72, pursuant to its calculation of the correct reimbursable amount pursuant to the New York Workers' Compensation Chiropractic Fee Schedule for services rendered by a NP. This payment is acknowledged in the AR-1.

The issue to be determined at the hearing is whether the respondent established its fee schedule defense.

4. Findings, Conclusions, and Basis Therefor

This hearing was held on Zoom and the decision is based upon the documents reviewed in the Modria File as well as the arguments made by counsel and/or representative at the arbitration hearing. Only the arguments presented at the hearing are preserved in this decision; all other arguments not presented at the hearing are considered waived.

According to the AR-1 the applicant billed a total of $3,040.43 for the services at issue, for which the respondent made partial payment of $569.72 for services provided by a NP, leaving a balance of $2,470.71. At the hearing, the applicant amended the amount claimed to $1,732.28. The respondent did not agree with this amended amount.

The outstanding issues is the billing of multiple charges for CPT code 76942 and the amount charged for J codes. The respondent contends that code 76942 can only be billed once regardless of the number of trigger points performed. The applicant contends that when ultrasound guidance for needle placement is performed with respect to trigger point injections it may be reported multiple times.

To prevail in a fee schedule defense, the respondent must demonstrate by competent evidentiary proof that applicant's claims were in excess of the appropriate fee schedules, or otherwise respondent's defense of noncompliance with the appropriate fee schedule cannot be sustained. Continental Medical, P.C. v. Travelers Indemnity Co., 11 Misc.3d 145(A) (App. Term 1st Dept. 2006.)

An insurer fails to raise a triable issue of fact with respect to a defense that the fees charged were not in conformity with the Workers' Compensation fee schedule when it does not specify the actual reimbursement rates which formed the basis for its determination that the claimant billed in excess of the maximum amount permitted. See St. Vincent Medical Services, P.C. v. GEICO Ins. Co., 29 Misc.3d 141(A), 907 N.Y.S.2d 441 (App. Term 2d, Dec. 8, 2010.)

A fee schedule defense does not always require expert proof. There are two fee schedule scenarios. The first involves the basic application of the fee codes and simple arithmetic. The second scenario involves interpretation of the codes and often requires testimony and evidence beyond that of a lay individual.

I find that this claim involves the second scenario and requires testimony by an expert.

The respondent supported its fee schedule defense, with the affidavit of Chelsea Burst, CPC, a certified professional fee coder who submitted a comprehensive analysis and determined that the correct total reimbursable amount for the services at issue, performed by a NP is $559.16. This includes payment of $7.07 for the J codes.

The respondent made payment of $569.72 which she determined was an overpayment of $10.56.

Ms. Burst determined that, pursuant to the Radiology Section of the New York Workers' Compensation Medical Fee Schedule and the NCCI, only one unit is allowed for CPT code 76942 regardless of the number of needle placements performed. The NCCI states in pertinent part: "the unit of service for these codes is the patient encounter, not number of lesions, number of aspirations, number of biopsies, number of injections, or number of localizations.

Also, based on the relevant portions regarding reimbursement of Physician Assistants, of the New York State Workers' Compensation Medical Fee Schedule and the CPT Assistant, a NP can only be reimbursed 80% of the charges for a physician.

In response to the fee coder affidavit by Chelsea Burst, CPC, regarding the correct reimbursement for CPT code 76942 as it relates to CPT code 20553, the applicant submitted the affidavit of Michael Miscoe, Senior Forensic Coding and Compliance Auditor/Expert, who submitted a comprehensive report in which he discussed payment for the services at issue. In his affidavit, Mr. Miscoe acknowledges that reliance on the CPT Assistant is proper. He states in pertinent part: "[b]y both statute and regulation, the fee schedules established by the chair of the Workers' Compensation Board are expressly made applicable to claims under the No-Fault Law (see Insurance Law § 5108; 11 NYCRR 68.0, 68.1[a][1]; see generally Government Empls. Ins. Co. v. Avanguard Med. Group, PLLC, 127 A.D.3d 60, 63-64, 4 N.Y.S.3d 267 [2d Dept. 2015], affd 27 N.Y.3d 22, 29 N.Y.S.3d 242, 49 N.E.3d 711 [2016].)

Accordingly, because CPT Assistant is incorporated by reference into the CPT book, which is incorporated by reference into the Official New York Workers' Compensation Medical Fee Schedule applicable to this claim under the No-Fault Law, the award rendered without consideration of CPT Assistant is incorrect as a matter of law See 11 NYCRR 65- 4.10[a][4]). Glob. Liberty Ins. Co. v. McMahon, 99 N.Y.S.3d 310, 311-12 (N.Y. App. Div. 1st Dept. 2019.)

The citation from the CPT Assistant Mr. Miscoe relies upon includes a question and answer related to diagnostic radiology specifically with regard to reporting ultrasound guidance for trigger-point injections (20051, 20052.)

Mr. Miscoe also included further documentation from the CPT Assistant regarding CPT code 76942 which allows for ultrasonic guidance twice for breast lesions, which is not relevant to the issue here.

The applicant included a copy of an unreported disposition of the District Court of Suffolk County, Third District, Decided on December 12, 2023 which determined that pursuant to a plain reading of the Radiology Section of the New York Workers' Compensation Fee Schedule allows for multiple units of CPT code 76942 when it is billed in conjunction with trigger point injections under CPT code 20553.

There is no mention of the CPT Assistant and its reference to this issue as it relates specifically to trigger point injections with ultrasonic guidance (CPT codes 20553 and 64450 and CPT code 76942.)

After a review of all the evidence submitted an issue of fact remains as to the correct reimbursable amount for the services at issue. Conflicting opinions have been presented in the affidavit of Chelsea Burst, CPC and the affidavit of Michael Miscoe, Senior Forensic Coding and Compliance Auditor/Expert, who submitted an affidavit on behalf of the applicant. I find that the submission of Ms. Burst was more persuasive in this instance.

However, Ms. Burst did not mention possible reimbursement of an additional code for 76942 for the injection billed under CPT code 64450-59-NP.

Based on a plain reading of the New York Workers' Medical Fee Schedule, I find that the applicant is entitled to a second charge for CPT code 76942 in the amount of $173.52 which represents deductions for multiple procedures and charges billed by a NP for CPT code 64450.

I am aware that there are numerous arbitration awards which support the arguments of this applicant and various other defendants. However, based on the evidence submitted including reports from fee coder experts and the appropriate New York Workers' Compensation Medical Fee Schedule and CPT Assistant, I have determined that CPT code 76942 may only be reimbursed once regardless of the number of trigger point needle placements performed. I also find that the applicant is entitled to additional reimbursement for code 76942 when CPT code 64450 is billed.

Based on the foregoing, I find that the respondent has established its fee schedule defense with the exception of the additional charge of $173.52 for CPT code 76942 as stated above.

Accordingly, the applicant is awarded $173.52 and the remainder of the claim is dismissed with prejudice.

Any further issues submitted in the record are held to be moot and/or waived insofar as they were not raised at the time of this hearing. This decision is in full disposition of all claims for no-fault benefits presently before this Arbitrator.

5. Optional imposition of administrative costs on Applicant.
Applicable for arbitration requests filed on and after March 1, 2002.

I do NOT impose the administrative costs of arbitration to the applicant, in the amount established for the current calendar year by the Designated Organization.

6. I find as follows with regard to the policy issues before me:

- ☐ The policy was not in force on the date of the accident
- ☐ The applicant was excluded under policy conditions or exclusions
- ☐ The applicant violated policy conditions, resulting in exclusion from coverage
- ☐ The applicant was not an "eligible injured person"
- ☐ The conditions for MVAIC eligibility were not met
- ☐ The injured person was not a "qualified person" (under the MVAIC)
- ☐ The applicant's injuries didn't arise out of the "use or operation" of a motor vehicle
- ☐ The respondent is not subject to the jurisdiction of the New York No-Fault arbitration forum

Accordingly, the applicant is AWARDED the following:

A.

Medical		From/To	Claim Amount	Amount Amended	Status
	Atlantic Medical & Diagnostic PC	07/09/25 - 07/15/25	$2,470.71	$1,732.28	Awarded: $173.52
Total			$2,470.71		Awarded: $173.52

- B. The insurer shall also compute and pay the applicant interest set forth below. 09/11/2026 is the date that interest shall accrue from. This is a relevant date only to the extent set forth below.

Applicant is awarded interest pursuant to the no-fault regulations. See generally, 11 NYCRR §65-3.9. Interest shall be calculated "at a rate of two percent per month, calculated on a pro rata basis using a 30 day month." See 11 NYCRR §64-3.9(a). A claim becomes overdue when it is not paid within 30 days after a proper demand is made for its payment. However, the regulations toll the accrual of interest when an applicant "does not request arbitration or institute a lawsuit within 30 days after the receipt of a denial of claim form or payment of benefits" calculated pursuant to Insurance Department regulations. Where a claim is untimely denied, or not denied or paid, interest shall accrue as of the 30th day following the date the claim is presented by the claimant to the insurer for payment. Where a claim is timely denied, interest shall accrue as of the date an action is commenced or an arbitration requested, unless an action is commenced or an arbitration requested within 30 days after receipt of the denial, in which event interest shall begin to accrue as of the date the denial is received by the claimant. See, 11 NYCRR §65-3.9(c.) The Superintendent and the New York Court of Appeals has interpreted this provision to apply regardless of whether the particular denial was timely. LMK Psychological Servs. P.C. v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 12 NY3d 217 (2009.)

C. Attorney's Fees

The insurer shall also pay the applicant for attorney's fees as set forth below

Applicant is awarded statutory attorney's fees pursuant to the no fault regulations. For cases filed after February 4, 2015 the attorney's fee shall be calculated as follows: 20% of the amount of first-party benefits awarded, plus interest thereon subject to no minimum fee and a maximum of $1,360.00. See 11 NYCRR §65-4.6(d.)

- D. The respondent shall also pay the applicant forty dollars ($40) to reimburse the applicant for the fee paid to the Designated Organization, unless the fee was previously returned pursuant to an earlier award.

This award is in full settlement of all no-fault benefit claims submitted to this arbitrator.
